

Information for retailers

If you are a retailer and you would like to order copies of my paperbacks for your store, they are available through a wide range of popular distribution channels. Here are the ways you can get hold of copies.

Direct sales

You can order copies direct if you have an EDI arrangement with Lightning Source (inc. IngramSpark) or if you have a trading relationship with Ingram wholesale.

You can set up an account with Ingram wholesale via their website at <http://www.ingramcontent.com/retailers>

UK retailers can also order through ipage in the UK.

Indirect sales

In addition to ordering copies direct, many other major distributors will be able to source the books for you.

Here is a list of distributors who can source the books via Lightning Source:

<http://www.ingramspark.com/how-it-works/print-distribution-partners>

A great many more distributors too numerous to mention will also be able to source the books via Ingram wholesale.

Many thanks for your interest in my books.